About the Coaches: Janine Stephens and Jeff Powell

Janine Stephens started rowing in the summer of 2000. She raced in the 2001 Canada Games, for the University of Michigan for 4 years, and was with the National team for the 6 years following. Janine competed in the 2008 Beijing Olympics, racing in the Quad and finishing 8th.

Janine's competitive rowing career ended with winning the Silver Medal in the 2012 London Olympics in the Women's 8+

Jeff began rowing at the Winnipeg Rowing Club (WRC) in 1996 after watching Canada's success at the Atlantic Olympics. He rowed for the WRC and Manitoba Rowing locally and did his University rowing at Western. Jeff spent four years rowing on the National Team where his highlights included two World Championships and an Olympic berth. He also coached for three year with the women's National Team program in London that culminated in Canada's development W8+ winning the Remmenhan Cup at the Henley Royal Regatta in 2012
